Description

Carl Johansson (1863-1944) Swedish
Carl Johansson was born in Sweden in 1863 and after a short formal education he quickly began to share the philosophy of the Impressionists and their understanding of light and colour. Johansson's paintings were acclaimed for their bold and fluid brushwork, which in this case give the painting depth and the water an appearance of movement. This harmonious signed and dated (1925) oil on canvas is a fine example of his impressionist technique. Johansson's work can also be seen in the Stockholm Museum of Art, he is increasingly acknowledged as one of the most important Swedish Impressionist artists.

Year: 1903. Oil on canvas. Signed lower right.
